

SOCIETY

Scene

Broward Edition • May 6, 2009

GILDA'S CLUB SOUTH FLORIDA
ANNUAL COMEDY NIGHT

SunSentinel

A Marketing Publication of Sun Sentinel Company

BROWARD EDUCATION FOUNDATION

FORT LAUDERDALE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

1. Steve Lemons and Teddi Boyne play with Sophia Pouliot and Gracie Pouliot 2. Steve Lemons and Paula Taylor play with Gracie Pouliot 3. Teddi Shelley Goren, CEO of Gilda's Club South Florida, Teddi Boyne and Armando Leighton 4. Children at Gilda's Club, front: Mayleen Gonzalez, left, Katiana Gonzalez, Erin Deming, Lauren Rey, and back: Sophia Pouliot, left, Gracie Pouliot, Hayley Suraci and Ryan Rey 5. Lucie Pouliot with daughters Sophia and Gracie color together

Who: Gilda's Club South Florida's Annual Fundraiser to support Gilda's Club programs.
What: One night comedy show: Live from South Florida ... It's Saturday Night! starring actor and comedian, Rondell Sheridan
When: Saturday, May 16, champagne reception at 6:30 p.m.; live auction begins at 7:30 p.m..
Where: Parker Playhouse, 707 NE 8th Street, Fort Lauderdale
Why: This is a great night! Not only do we have an exciting evening of entertainment, but this event raises a significant amount of our operating budget which allows Gilda's Club to provide our programs free of charge to anyone touched by cancer.
How: Contact the Parker Playhouse to purchase tickets to support this worthwhile cause. Sponsorship Opportunities are available; For more information, contact Kim Laffont at Gilda's Club at 954-763-6776 or email kim@gildasclubsouthflorida.org.

"I have a phrase I use to describe Gilda's. It's the place I go when I need to emotionally decompressed. Sometimes you get so emotional; you don't even know how to express what you are going through at Gilda's they just understand."

LUCIE POULIOT